Q4. What did the ringmaster make Pinocchio do?

Ans –The ringmaster made Pinocchio work for the circus.

Q5. Why was the Blue Fairy happy with Pinocchio? How did she reward Pinocchio In the end?

Ans –The Blue Fairy was happy with Pinocchio because when his father Gep fell ill, Pinocchio fed him hot soup and looked after him. He studied at school so that he can get a good job. The Blue Fairy rewarded him by making him a real boy because he was having a good heart.

Q6. Do you think Pinocchio was a responsible boy? Yes / No?

Why do you think so?

Ans –Yes, he was a responsible boy because at the end he realised his mistake and promised to be a good boy.

Q7. There are good and bad characters in the story. Who do you think is the best and who is the worst? Give one reason each for your answer.

Ans –Blue fairy is the best character in the story because when Pinocchio was being a naughty boy, she punished him just to teach him a lesson and when he really became a good boy, she rewarded him by making him a real boy. The cunning cat and a sly fox were the worst characters because they told Pinocchio that if he plants golden coins under a tree in an orchard, next day he will get hundred coins. And when Pinocchio planted the coins and left, the cat and the fox took the coins and ran away.

Q8. 'As you sow, so shall you reap.' If you do bad things, then bad things will happen to you. But if you do good things, then good things will happen to you. When Pinocchio was being naughty, he got into trouble. Do you agree? Give one example

.Ans –Yes, I agree with this statement. Pinocchio promised the Blue Fairy to be a good boy but he did not do so. The next day, on his way to school, Pinocchio met her boy. They both went to the Funland. He had a lot of fun for two days. Suddenly, Pinocchio and the other boy found their ears growing longer and they were growing a tail. They were turning into donkeys.
